Narrative

On 01/10/17 PR Ashley Hilts came into Metro HQ to report the following:

On 01/08/17 at approx. 1530 hours, two engineers working for Razor, Peace Yin and Steve Lin saw the listed laptops in the pressroom inside of Razor's booth at the CES convention.

On 01/08/17 at approx. 1600 hours, Yin and Lin were breaking down the booth and noticed that the two laptops were no longer in the pressroom. Yin and Lin looked all over to make sure the laptops were not in with any of Razor's property. Yin and Lin contacted Hilts to let her know that the laptops had been stolen. The theft was reported to Las Vegas Convention and Visitors Authority between 1600 and 1800 hours and a report was taken, report #45. Hilts did not have a copy of the report at the time due to the report taking 7-10 days to be sent to Hilts.

Hilts stated that the laptops are an invention of Razor. The laptops are gamer laptops with the option to extend the screen into three separate screens when opened. Hilts stated that there was one door in and out of the room and it was kept locked. Hilt also stated that anyone that was not a Razor employee was escorted by a Razor employee.

Hilts stated that there is a $25,000 reward on the CEO's Facebook page.
